

CHAPTER 56.

Published May 9.

An Act to provide for defraying the contingent expenses of the State for the present year.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the purpose of defraying the contingent <sup>Contingent</sup> expenses of the state for the present year, and of the several state officers, including stationery, lights, furniture and all other contingent expenses of the state, and of the several state officers, the sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be drawn from the treasury by and expended under the direction of the governor, as the exigences of the public service may require, and it is hereby made the duty of the governor to cause to be transmitted to the legislature at its next session, a detailed statement of the expenditure of this appropriation.

SEC. 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1856.

CHAPTER 57.

Published June 13.

An Act to change the name of Frank Edward Sherman to Frank Edward Bontello.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The name of Frank Edward Sherman is <sup>is</sup> Name changed hereby changed to Frank Edward Bontello, by which name he shall be hereafter known and recognized for all purposes whatever.